

The image shows the front cover of an old book. The main part of the cover is decorated with marbled paper featuring a pattern of large, irregular, light-colored spots (possibly stone or shell) with a network of fine, dark red veins. To the left, the spine of the book is visible, made of a plain, light-colored material, possibly leather or cloth. A small, white rectangular label is affixed to the bottom left corner of the cover, partially overlapping the spine. This label contains the text 'CS', '71', '.E42', and '1870zx' stacked vertically. Below this white label is a red rectangular label with the words 'Research' and 'Library' in white, bold, sans-serif font, stacked vertically.
